THE TWENTY-FIRST REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS

IN IRELAND.

TO THE MOST NOBLE THE MARQUIS OF LONDONDERRY, K.G.,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. Early in the year the library and MSS. of the late Dr. Richard Caulfield, LL.D., F.S.A., were advertised to be sold by auction. On examination of the catalogue and of the lots it was found to include an original parish register, original parochial returns, and original consistorial and diocesan records of the diocese of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, that had been at some time or another taken from their proper custody, and were portions of series of Public Records already in this Department. Intermingled with these were miscellaneous original deeds and other documents. As these records had never been in the possession of this Department, there was no power under the Public Record Acts of this country to stop their sale. Accordingly, application was made to the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for permission to purchase such lots as should contain original documents forming portion of classes of records already in the Department. The required authorisation was obtained, and the following list sets out the nature of the documents thus recovered:—

13. From the offices of the Land Judges, Chancery Division, the balance of the deeds boxes, 2,500 in number, included in the warrant of the 17th July, 1886, have been transferred. These, with the 2,000 removed last year, amount in all to 4,500 deeds boxes of the Land Judges transferred. Of these 116 have been inspected during the year, on orders from the Registrar of the Division.

15 Rep., 18.

14. From the Office of the Accountant-General of the Supreme Court, thirteen bundles of miscellaneous copy orders, portion of the series transferred in 1882, have been received; together with eighteen bundles of railway warrants or requisitions to lodge money for the years 1839-1879.

App. I.

15. No Records have been transferred during the past year from the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, the President of that Division having certified that the Records are required for the current business of the Division. There are, therefore, eleven years' accretion of original wills, as well as eleven years' accretion of book copies of those wills, besides other testamentary Records, unremoved to this Department, in addition to some two years of ordinary contentious office and Court papers. In the course of the year, in compliance with requisitions from the Probate Office, twenty-three searches have been made and certificates issued by this Department to obviate any inconvenience which might be imposed on the officers of the Division, if required to attend at the Public Record Office to make their searches in person. The necessity for such searches being made here affects only the Records already transferred to this office. The Records of Grants of Administration and Probate from the 11th

January, 1858, yet to be removed here, have, in accordance with sections 72 and 73 of the Probate and Administration Act (Ireland) 1857, printed calendars which would afford the officers of the Division all the information necessary for their searches, and copies of them would still be available for reference at the Probate Office.

16. There has been no transfer from the Record Tower, Dublin Castle. The Report of Sir Bernard Burke, the Keeper of the State Papers, Ireland, will be found as Appendix II. Appendix II.

17. It had been expected that before the making of this Report the Warrant of the Lord Chancellor and the Master of the Rolls, directing the transfer of the Marriage Records of the late Consistorial Court of Dublin, would have been executed; but it has only been complied with as regards that portion of the Records removed in 1887, the Marriage Licence Books and the Indices thereto being still withheld. 20 Report, s. 10.

18. Fifty-two conveyances of Quit and Crown Rents, and three other Deeds affecting the rights of the Crown, have been received and deposited here during the year.

19. The Minute Book of the Corporation of Knocktopher has been deposited here by R. Langrishe, Esq., under the 16th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act.

20. At the instance of the Public Record Office of England, a list was forwarded of addenda to the returns of Members of the Parliament of Ireland, 1559-1800, ordered by the House of Commons on the 4th May, 1876, and 9th March, 1877.

21. Attention having been directed to a certain amount of deterioration which had taken place in the Patent and Close Rolls of Chancery, measures have been taken to obviate it, which have so far proved completely successful. These rolls, in their former repository, were kept standing on their ends in closed wooden presses, which preserved the parchment in good condition, but had a tendency to wear the roll where it rested, and to discolour the top by the layer of dust which formed there. To avoid these disadvantages, on their removal here they were wound on wooden mandrils, by which they were hung in open trays; but experience has shown that this mode of preservation dried the parchment of the rolls too much, and permitted dust to enter at the sides. The form of deposit now adopted will, it is expected, get rid of all these inconveniences, by means of a modification of the French system of "carton" boxes, which is considered, and with good reason, one of the best modes of preserving records against the evils arising from dust, light, changes of temperature, and the effects of the varying amounts of dampness in the air. A report on this system was made by Sir Bernard Burke, Ulster King-at-Arms, in 1866, to Lord Naas, then Chief Secretary for Ireland, and highly approved of and recommended by him. The rolls are now being deposited in hollow cylinders, made of brown paper boards, stopped at one end and with a cover on the other. These are laid on their side in trays. Some forty years ago the late James F. Ferguson tried, with success, a similar plan with the memoranda rolls of the Exchequer, wrapping them in sheets of thick brown paper. This plan, though thoroughly efficient in keeping the parchment in a good state, and free from the evils above mentioned, is unsuited for rolls in frequent use.

22. Authorisation was obtained from the Lords of the Treasury to send to H. M. Stationery Office, for the purpose of their being sold to the public, 180 copies of the ninety-two pages of the "Chartæ Privilegia et Immunitates," left printed by the late Record Commissioners. These pages contain transcripts of charters and privileges to cities, towns, abbeys, and other corporate bodies, from 18 Henry II. to 18 Richard II. (1171 to 1395), and would appear to be all that is at present to hand of what had been completed by the Commission at its determination. This work was transferred here in sheets from the Record Tower, Dublin Castle; and though only ninety-two pages are now extant, it would appear from the Reports of the Commissioners that they had printed down to page 100, the commencement of the reign of Henry IV. At the request of the Stationery Office, a title page was drawn up for sale with these books.

Intern Fittings.

23. Eight bays on the sixth floor have been covered with corrugated galvanised iron sheeting, to preserve the Records from the dust and broken mortar, which accumulate owing to the fall of the rendering from the roof. This change has been found effectual for the purpose, and has had the additional effect of lowering the temperature of these upper bays in summer, and making them warmer in winter. Six bays have had galvanised iron shelving substituted for the former wooden fittings.

24. Two vaults, I and K, have been fitted with iron racks for the Land Judges' Deeds Boxes, and the left hand corridor in the vaults has been fitted with similar racks for the like purpose.

25. Thirteen trays in bay 3 D have been fitted with zinc bottoms and sides, to serve as sliding drawers, to hold the Patent and Close Rolls, as now placed in round carton boxes. The usual diagram, showing the changes made in the Record Treasury, is annexed.

Sorting and Arrangement of Records.

26. The arrangement in dictionary order of the miscellaneous Cause Papers of the Court of Admiralty has been completed; and the bundles containing them have been papered.

27. Twenty-three bundles of miscellaneous papers from the Prerogative Collection have been sorted into dictionary order, with a view of interpolating them amongst the Prerogative Cause Papers.

19 Report, s. 38.

44. The Calendar to the Disentailing Deeds, enrolled in the Court of Chancery, has been continued from Deed No. 4,754, enrolled 7th August, 1866, to Deed No. 4,796, enrolled on the 16th November, 1866.

45. A draft Catalogue has been commenced to the Chancery Bills found amongst the ancient Pleadings, and has proceeded from September, 1552, to the 11th November, 1611, comprising 1,779 documents.

46. The draft Index to the Grant Books of the Dublin Consistorial Court has been supplemented by forming a draft Index to the Marriage Licence Bonds for the years 1831 to 1846 inclusive.

47. The Calendar to the Christ Church Deeds has been continued by Mr. M'Enery, and some 400 additional Deeds are now nearly ready for printing.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Acts,

48. The reports for the year 1888 of the Parochial Officers having charge of their Parish Registers, by virtue of Retention Orders from His Honor the Master of the Rolls, have been regularly and satisfactorily furnished. At the present date, out of 487 parishes for which reports have to be returned, there is only one in arrear. There have been but few fresh complaints of injury to the records arising from damp, and when the precautions recommended the last few years have been adopted with regard to these, there is little doubt but that they will have the same good effect as they have had in the other cases in which they have been taken; but at the same time an iron safe cannot be considered the best form of receptacle to preserve records from the effects of damp.

49. In two cases where the custodians had reported that they had removed the Records from the place of deposit to another building, undertakings were obtained from them that this should not again occur.

50. I regret to have to report that the Parochial Register of the Parish of St. Nicholas Without, for the years 1631-1660, has disappeared from the local custody. On the 22nd February, 1876, the late Rev. H. R. Halahan entered this volume in his inventory as being then in his possession, amongst the other Records of the Parish. He was succeeded in 1883 by the Rev. J. D. Smylie, who applied under the Parochial Records Amendment Act for an order to permit the Records to remain in the Parish, which order was granted by His Honor the Master of the Rolls, and, in the usual course, was forwarded to the Incumbent with a Schedule on the back of the Order conforming to the inventory furnished by the late Mr. Halahan. It having been reported that this Register was not accessible to the public, a letter was written to the Incumbent making inquiries for the book in question, who stated that it had never been given up to him by Mr. Halahan, and that he had never seen it, nor had it ever been in his possession. The Parish Clerk stated the same thing, and after a careful examination of the Records in the Parish Safe by an Officer of the Department, it was not amongst the Records there deposited, nor, after careful examination of all the places available to him, could it be found. This is a further instance of the unsatisfactory nature of the present system of divided control to which this Department has, on several occasions, directed attention.

51. The system of forwarding per Parcels Post the Parochial Registers, when attached by the warrant of the Master of the Rolls, for removal here, has worked very well, and resulted in a considerable saving in the cost of transmission. I have to thank the clergy concerned for their effective co-operation in this matter.

52. The Registers of thirty parishes became attachable during the year. Of these fifteen have been transferred to this custody, and fifteen remain in local custody, by virtue of His Honor's Retention Orders. The three tables subjoined show the changes in places of deposit and custody of Parochial Records during 1888 :—

APPENDIX II.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS—THE TWENTY-FIRST REPORT OF SIR BERNARD BURKE, C.B., ULSTER, KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS IN THE RECORD TOWER, DUBLIN CASTLE, DATED 1ST FEBRUARY, 1889.

SIR,—The work of this Department during the year just passed has been as follows :—

I. THE INDEX TO THE COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTS AND LETTERS transferred to this Department from the Chief Secretary's Office in 1859, alluded to in my last [20th Report] has been proceeded with from 1787 to 1790.

- II. THE UNREGISTERED MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS of the years 1877 and 1878 have been indexed on slips.
- III. A COMPREHENSIVE INDEX of a COLLECTION of PAPERS ranging over the years 1796, 1797, 1798, 1799, 1800, 1801, 1802, 1803, to 1808, contained in 68 cartons [Nos.  $\frac{1}{220}$  to  $\frac{68}{220}$ ] has been transcribed, filling 231 pages.
- IV. THE "SEARCH BOOK" INDEX 1874 to 1888, has been arranged in alphabetical form, and is now being copied into the Volume of Searches.
- V. THE PAPERS of the year 1833 have been folded and placed in 67 cartons, Nos. 2412 to 2477.
- VI. THE CURRENT PAPERS of the years 1877 and 1878, the CONVICT PAPERS of the years 1878-1883, the COUNCIL ORDERS 1871-1873, COUNCIL PAPERS 1874-1883, MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS of the COUNCIL OFFICE 1872-1876, PROCLAMATIONS 1875-1885, CATTLE DISEASE ACTS—COPIES OF ORDERS OF COUNCIL 1866-1878, have been placed in cartons. They fill 231 boxes.
- VII. THE COUNCIL MINUTE BOOKS 1711-1839, 40 vols.; THE COUNCIL ORDER BOOKS 1711-1876, 40 vols.; COUNCIL OFFICE LETTER BOOKS 1848-1879, 5 vols.; FIANT BOOK 1846-1867, 1 vol.; LETTER BOOK INTO ENGLAND 1759-1768, 1 vol.; COUNCIL OFFICE REGISTER, 1858-1875, 1 vol.; and other Books and Papers of the Privy Council Office, have been catalogued.
- VIII. THE GOVERNMENT SEARCHES, which have, in consequence of the reception of the modern Papers from the Chief Secretary's Office, the Privy Council Office, and the Convict Department, increased considerably, and have occupied, during the past year, much time and labour.

The documents transferred from the Chief Secretary's Office in 1859 are of a miscellaneous character, and were sent to this Department in a very confused state. There was no index at all, and in 1860 this deficiency was supplied, but not adequately, by a general index then formed.

Seeing the necessity of having a more comprehensive index, slips have been made to the collection up to the year 1790. There are letters from Robert Hobart, J. Barrington, Baron Power, Earl of Chatham, Lord Delvin, William Ogle, Sackville Hamilton, Lord Mountjoy, Henry Ormsby, Rt. Hon. H. J. Clements, Countess of Tyrconnel, Earl of Glandore, Luke Gardiner, Alleyn FitzHerbert, Marquis of Buckingham (Lord Lieutenant), Lord Santry, Rt. Hon. Henry Dundas, Duke of Rutland, Lord Sydney, Earl of Carlisle (Lord Lieutenant), Marquis Townshend (Lord Lieutenant), Earl of Northumberland (Lord Lieutenant), Duke of Bedford, William Pitt, &c., &c. The letters refer to a great variety of subjects, such as Crown lands, Patents, Treaties of commerce, landing of the French, Parliament in Ireland, State of Ireland and its Government, Peerage Promotions, Linen Manufacture, Lottery Commissioners, Grand Juries, Post Office, Ulster King of Arms, Whiteboys, Cotton Manufacture, Bills before Parliament, Purchase of Lodge's MSS., Poynings' Act, and a vast number of other subjects.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Acts,

38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, and 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58.

42. The Reports of Parochial Officers (now 515 in number), who have custody of their Parish Registers, under Retention Orders granted by the Master of the Rolls, were, for the year 1890, most punctually furnished.

43. Out of this large number, in only four cases has any complaint of a tendency to dampness in the Records been made, and the custodians have been requested to adopt the suggestions for remedying this which have hitherto been found effectual.

44. During the course of the year 1890, the Registers of twenty-two Parishes became attachable, and of these, eleven have been transmitted for preservation here, and eleven are retained in local custody under His Honor's Retention Orders. The subjoined tables exhibit the changes in the places of deposit and custody of Parochial Records during the year.

I. Parishes, the Records of which have been transferred to the Public Record Office in the year 1890 :—

II. Parishes in which the Parochial Records have been retained in Local custody under Retention Orders in the year 1890 :—

Ballymacarrett.
Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin.
Donaghmore (Dromore.)
Dunganstown.
Glendernmot.
Kenure.
Killanney.

Lislee.
Oldcastle.
St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin.
Tacumshane.
Tashinny and Abbeyshrule.
Tullyniskin.

45. Certain of the Registers of three Parishes, namely, those of Dromdaleague, Dundalk, and Killashee, which were reported to be in need of repair and binding, were sent up to this Department and on being repaired, were duly returned to the care of the respective custodians.

46. I regret to state that the loss or disappearance of some Registers has been reported to the office. A Retention Order was granted to the Parish of Owenduff on 14th November, 1877, from which time up to the date of the recently appointed Incumbent's Report on them for the past year, the Records had been duly reported on as safe; but two volumes—a Register, 1808–1845, and a Vestry Book, 1788–1808, stated to contain Baptismal and other entries, cannot now be found, and as the late custodian is dead, it seems unlikely that they will be recovered.

47. In the case of the Parish of Castlemore, portion of a Burial Register containing entries from 1866 to 1873, would seem to have disappeared between the date of the return of the original Inventory in 1875, and the period when the Registers became attachable in 1890, and though every inquiry possible has been made, the effort to discover it has been unsuccessful.

48. It has been thought advisable, on account of the numerous changes that have taken place during the last five years, to re-print in Appendix IV. the Table of the Parochial Records of Ireland, appearing in Appendix VII. of the Eighteenth Report, corrected up to the date of this Report. This Table shows what Parochial Records are deposited in the Public Record Office, what are still in local custody under Retention Orders, and what are still unattached. <sup>18 Report, App 7.</sup> <sup>Appendix IV.</sup>

49. The amount of Fees received during the year was £877 17s. 6d., being an increase of £151 17s. 0d. over the receipts of the previous year.

APPENDIX I.

EXTRACTS from MR. HERBERT WOOD'S REPORT on the BANKRUPTCY RECORDS to 1857.

All the Records transferred from the above Court to this Office, with the exception of a few Calendars, Indexes, and Rolls, are documents belonging to cases filed in Bankruptcy before November, 1857, when the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Court was constituted. In a number of instances, the documents in connection with each particular case have been preserved in separate portfolios, which are endorsed with the bankrupt's name and a current number. The contents of these portfolios, however, form the more recent portion of the Records. The earlier portion is to be found amongst a great mass of documents, which were transferred to this Office in sacks, labelled "Dockets, Commissions, and Proceedings in Bankruptcy." They are in process of being flattened, sorted, and arranged under their several cases, and will form a large collection of Cause Papers. They contain all the earlier Bankruptcy cases : but there are also a number of documents amongst them belonging to cases included amongst the portfolios.

These Records have accrued since 1772, when an Act (11 & 12 Geo. III., c. 8) was passed for the purpose of preventing frauds being committed by bankrupts. It defined the different kinds of traders who were liable to come under the statute, and specified the various acts which would constitute an Act of Bankruptcy, and subject the defaulting trader to its provisions. If a trader, as defined by the Act, was unable to meet his liabilities, one or more creditors, to whom the bankrupt was indebted in sufficient sums, could, immediately upon his committing an Act of Bankruptcy, petition the Lord Chancellor or, in his absence, the Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, to have him examined by a Commission. This petition had to be accompanied by an affidavit, sworn before a Master in Chancery, of the truth of the debt, and a bond of security for £200 conditioned to prove such debt. The Lord Chancellor thereupon could direct that a Commission should issue to certain "wise, honest, and discreet" persons, styled Commissioners, to examine the bankrupt and arrange his affairs. These had full authority, under the Lord Chancellor, to do everything conducive to an equitable settlement. Orders, however, could be made in these matters by the Lord Chancellor on petition, and it was part of the duties of the Masters in Chancery to report upon such petitions when referred to them. As soon as the Commission was issued, notice thereof was given in the Gazette, and a day appointed for the meeting of creditors, when an assignee, or assignees, were chosen by them. The effects of the bankrupt were then conveyed by the Commissioners, in whom they had vested on the issuing of the Commission, to the assignee or assignees of the creditors, by a deed of assignment or of bargain and sale, which was usually enrolled upon the Bankrupt Rolls or the Patent Rolls of Chancery. It was, however, in the power of the Commissioners to appoint an assignee of their own, subject to the approval of the creditors, when they met. Upon the appointment of the assignee he chose a solicitor, who was termed the Agent of the Commission, to appear in Court for him and give legal advice. The Commissioners conducted the case till the final examination, when, if they were satisfied that the bankrupt had made a full disclosure of his effects, and had in all things conformed to the statutes, and were supported by four-fifths of the creditors for amounts not under £20 each, they recommended the Lord Chancellor to grant the bankrupt a certificate of conformity, which discharged him from any liabilities covered by the Commission. The more important part of the proceedings was generally enrolled, permission to do so being obtained from the Lord Chancellor by petition.

By the Act 6 & 7 Will. IV., c. 14, instead of Commissions being directed to various Commissioners, one fixed Commissioner was appointed; a second being added by an amending Act of the next year. Under the new regulations, no deed of assignment was required to transfer the bankrupt's property to the assignee; but the certificate of choice of assignee was ordered to be enrolled, in lieu thereof. In the year 1849, by the Act 12 & 13 Vic., cap. 107, official assignees first came into existence. In the year 1857, by the Act 20 & 21 Vic., c. 60, the procedure was considerably altered; but, as the Records which have accrued since the passing of this Act have not been transferred as yet, I need not do more than refer to it here.

The following is a descriptive list of the Bankruptcy Records transferred to this Office :—

Affidavits, Admissions and Declarations of Insolvency, Entry Book of 1846-1855, 1 vol.

This book contains a record of the filing of four separate classes of documents, viz. :—

a. Affidavits filed, 1846-1855.

Creditors to certain amounts could, upon filing an Affidavit, serve a trader with a notice to settle within 41 days (altered by 12 and 13 Vic., c. 107, to 21 days). If this notice was disregarded, the debtor was deemed to have committed an Act of Bankruptcy.

b. Affidavits filed to ground summons, 1849-1855.

On a creditor filing such an affidavit, it was lawful for the Commissioners to summon the trader concerned to appear before them.

c. Admissions of debt and Depositions of Good Defence, 1849-1855.

Unless the trader made this admission and deposition, after 14 days' grace, he was deemed to have committed an Act of Bankruptcy.

d. Declarations of Insolvency, 1846-1855.

These were declarations made in writing, and signed by a trader, affirming that he was an Insolvent. Such a declaration, after being printed in the Gazette, constituted an Act of Bankruptcy and a Commission could then issue.

Cause Papers in Portfolios, 1778-1857.

These consist of original documents in Bankruptcy, the papers in each case being preserved in a separate portfolio. They are mostly, however, of recent origin, and, for original documents of an early period, it will be necessary to search the Miscellaneous Cause Papers. In some cases the original documents are not all preserved together, as some will be found in the portfolios and some in the Cause Papers. In the case of a missing portfolio, the Miscellaneous Cause Papers, or another portfolio in the same case, should be searched for the documents required.

The following are some of the most important of the contents :—

Affidavits.

Adjudications in Bankruptcy.

Admissions of Debt.

Balance Sheets and Schedules.

Certificates.

Costs.

Leases.

Memoranda of proceedings at sittings by the Commissioner.

Orders of Dividend by Commissioner.

Petitions.

Powers of Attorney.

Proofs of Debt.

Sales and Biddings.

There is an Index to these causes, but, in partnerships, the junior partners are not indexed individually.

Cause Papers (Miscellaneous), 1772-1857.

These are the documents which were transferred to this Office in sacks, under the title "Dockets, Commissions and Proceedings in Bankruptcy." They are in process of being sorted, folded and arranged in dictionary order, under their different cases, and should be consulted as well as the portfolios for original documents. They commence at an earlier date than the portfolios, the bulk of the latter being of more recent origin. Even in causes where there are portfolios, these Cause Papers will often include documents relating to the same proceeding.

Certificates, 1772-1871, 3 vols.

These books contain the names of bankrupts, to whom Certificates of Conformity were granted, and the date of such grant, while the last volume contains also a few signatures of solicitors in receipt for same : indexed. There is a blank between 15th March, 1803-December, 1816, and the two last volumes overlap for part of 1827-1828.

Commission Books, 1772–1857, 6 vols.

These books are Calendars of Commissions issued in Bankruptcy, and contain also notices of Supersedeas in cases where a fresh Commission was issued in place of the original one; they were kept by the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts. They give the name, address, and trade of bankrupt, the date of the Commission, the names of Commissioners to whom it was directed, the names of petitioner, and solicitor or agent of bankrupt. They are all indexed with the exception of the first volume, which contains at the end a list of Commissioners. For the period, 1810–1814, there is no calendar forthcoming, but only an index. The volume for 1814–1828 contains at the end a list of supernumerary Commissioners for the period 1814–1835, while the last volume gives, in many cases, the date of return of Commission. There is also a volume, 1852–1857, which would appear to be merely a rough Calendar of Commissions made prior to being entered up in the foregoing volumes. It contains the same information as the Calendar of Commissions for the corresponding period, but is not indexed.

Declarations of Insolvency.—See Affidavits, &c., Entry Book.

Dockets.—See Cause Papers (Miscellaneous).

Docket Book, 1846–1857, 1 vol.

This book was kept by the Secretary of Bankrupts, and is merely a list of dockets struck with name of bankrupt, date, and name of agent. For the period 1846–1848, the name of the petitioning creditor and date of Commission, are also given.

Enrolment Books, 2 vols. (1775–1819).

These books are Calendars to the Bankrupt Rolls, and, as they are not quite duplicates, should both be consulted. The first volume extends from 1775–1815, and is indexed, whilst the second, beginning at the same date, is continued up to 1819, but is not indexed.

They contain name, address, and trade of Bankrupt, proceedings enrolled, date of enrolment, number on the roll, and, sometimes, the name of agent.

Index to Cause Papers in Portfolios, 1778–1857.

This is an index to the cause papers in portfolios. It should be noticed that, in case of partnerships, the junior partners are not indexed individually.

Miscellaneous, 1858–1863.

Consist merely of a bundle of correspondence for 1858–1863, and a few miscellaneous documents, whose cause cannot be traced.

Orders on Petitions, 1818-1839, 1 vol.

This volume is a Hearing Book of Petitions before the Lord Chancellor. These were not originating petitions, but petitions presented by different parties during the bankruptcy proceedings. Orders on petitions by the Lord Chancellor are often to be found on foot of the petitions themselves, which should be searched for in the portfolios or miscellaneous cause papers. This volume contains bankrupt's name, a summary of petition, date of order for hearing, and the order of the court on the hearing.

Rolls, 1775-1852.

These are twenty-one rolls, containing the enrolment of such proceedings as, upon petition to the Lord Chancellor, were considered by him to be suitable to be placed on record. From 1775-1836 each skin of the roll is numbered, but from 1836-1852 each case has its own number. For index, see Enrolment Books. The following are the documents which were most frequently enrolled :—

Affidavits of Bankrupt having obtained Certificate without fraud.

Deeds of Assignment from Commissioners to Assignee.

Certificates of Conformity.

Commissions.

Choice of Assignees.

Orders for Enrolment.

Originating Petitions of Creditor.

Examinations, Depositions, &c.

The following is a continuation of the Calendar to Christ Church Deeds, printed as Appendix VII. to the Twentieth Report. The documents now calendared cover a part of the same period ranging from 1177 to 1462, the commencement of the reign of Edward IV.

The numeration of the Deeds is continued from the previous calendar for the facility of reference thereto, and the Calendar is formed on the same lines. Most of the original deeds are written in Latin, and where not, it is so stated at foot of abstract.

NOTE.—The dates of the Records not in the Public Record Office have been taken from Inventories returned by the Parochial Officers, chiefly in 1875-6; and it has been presumed that the entry of Marriages in the ordinary Registers ceased on the coming into operation of the Act 7 & 8 Vict., c. 81, unless the contrary is stated in the Inventory.

SIR,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, forwarding, for submission to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Twenty-fourth Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. S. B. KAYE.

The Deputy Keeper,

Public Record Office,

Four Courts.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE EARL OF ZETLAND,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. On the 22nd May, 1891, an Order was made by your Appendix I. Excellency in Council, directing that in pursuance of Section 5 of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, the Records which had been for over twenty years deposited in the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties of Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork (East Riding and West Riding), Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Limerick, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, Sligo, Tipperary, Wexford, Wicklow, the counties of the cities of Cork and Limerick, and the county of the town of Drogheda, should be thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of His Honor, the Master of the Rolls.

2. Before the close of the year, His Honor signed warrants for Armagh, Carlow, Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Queen's county, and Tipperary, South Riding, for the county of the town of Drogheda, and for a portion of the collections at Limerick and Wicklow.

3. The Records of the counties of Carlow, Fermanagh, Kerry, Longford, Louth, and of the county of the town of Drogheda, have been transferred, assorted, and duly deposited in their places in the Record Treasury of this Department, and Schedules of them will be found on paragraphs 28-39, infra: those of Armagh, Down, Londonderry, Mayo, and Queen's county, were in process of transfer and arrangement at the end of the year.

4. The Records of Tipperary, South Riding, and of the Crown Office, Wicklow, were ready for transfer, whilst the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for Cavan, Meath, Sligo, and Wexford stated that Schedules of their Records were being made out, preparatory to the issue of warrants for transfer. The Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the county and county of the city of Limerick appears either unable or unwilling to schedule the Records in his custody, and the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the East and West Ridings of Cork state that all their Records were consumed in the great fire in Cork courthouse in March, 1891.

Appendix II. 5. A request having been made to the Master of the Rolls, under the 14th Section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, by the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, that for the future the Records of that division should be transferred to this Department at the end of ten years from the making thereof, instead of twenty years, the period mentioned in the Act, His Honor was pleased to accede to it.

Appendix III. 6. A similar request having been made by the Lord Chief Baron in relation to the Records of the Exchequer Division, it was also granted by the Master of the Rolls.

Appendix IV. 7. The Right Honorable R. R. Warren, Judge of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, entertaining the opinion that it would be for the convenience of the public in the several District Registries that the books containing copies of Wills, proved since the 11th January, 1858, should not be transferred yearly to the Public Record Office, his Certificate to that effect was sent to the Master of the Rolls, who, taking into consideration the fact that, under Section 55 of the Act 20 and 21 Victoria, chapter 79, transcripts of these Will Books were regularly made and sent to the Principal Registry in Dublin, from which they were afterwards, from time to time, transferred to this Department, decided that in future these Will Books should be excepted from the increment annually transferred from the District Registries, and His Honor further directed that the books of this class, which had been removed under former Warrants, should be restored to their original places of deposit. This has been carried out, and the volumes enumerated in the Schedule to His Honor's order, have been returned to their respective District Registries.

8. There have been transferred to this Department during the past year, the following Records:—

Appendix VII.

62. The calendar to Christ Church Deeds has been continued by Mr. M'Eney down to the end of the reign of Elizabeth, as far as Deed numbered 1453, and is printed herewith. The remaining Deeds are chiefly leases, which are practically renewals (in one form or another) of those already printed, and it is not intended, for the present at least, to print any more. An Index to the Deeds calendared is in progress.

63. The consolidated detailed index to the Records of the Incumbered and Landed Estates Court has been advanced to page 222, that of the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, to page 341, the Custom House to page 476, the Chancery collection to page 471 of volume II., the Testamentary Collection to page 90, and the Clerks of the Crown and Peace to page 150.

64. The Reports of Parochial Officers who have custody of their Parish Registers, under Retention Orders granted by the Master of the Rolls (now 523 in number), were, for the year 1891, fully furnished.

65. The Report for the parish of Killelagh stated that the safe provided for the Records no longer existed, upon which they were removed here, and the original Retention Order was cancelled by His Honor the Master of the Rolls.

66. Damp was reported to be existent in the places of deposit of five parishes, but it is expected that the adoption of the measures which have proved successful in other parishes will stop the evil.

67. During the course of the year 1891, the Registers of fifteen parishes became attachable, and of these, eight have been transmitted for preservation here, and seven are retained in local custody under His Honor's Orders. The subjoined tables exhibit the changes in the places of deposit and custody of parochial Records during the year.

APPENDIX I.

BY THE LORD LIEUTENANT AND PRIVY COUNCIL IN IRELAND.

ZETLAND.

Whereas by Section 5 of the "Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, to order that Records belonging to Her Majesty, deposited in any office, court, place, or custody in Ireland, other than is thereinbefore mentioned, shall be thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls; and thereupon the provisions of that Act shall extend to all such Records, and to the persons then having the charge or custody of the same, as fully as if such office, court, place, or custody had been named and included in that Act:

And whereas the offices of Clerk of the Crown and Clerk of the Peace have been amalgamated in the case of the following counties, and counties of cities and towns, viz.:—Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork, East Riding and West Riding, Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Limerick, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, Sligo, Tipperary, Wexford, Wicklow, Cork, Drogheda, and Limerick:

And whereas the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls is of opinion that in all cases where the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace have become amalgamated, the provisions of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, should be extended to the Records of those offices:

And whereas it appears to Us necessary and desirable to provide for the safe custody and proper arrangement of the aforesaid Records, and of other similar Records, which may be from time to time deposited in the said offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the said counties:

Now We, Lawrence, Earl of Zetland, the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, in pursuance of the powers vested in Us as aforesaid, do hereby order that all Records, as defined by Section 3 of the aforesaid Act, belonging to Her Majesty, and which have been for over twenty years deposited in the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties, and counties of cities and towns of Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork, East Riding and West Riding, Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Limerick, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, Sligo, Tipperary, Wexford, Wicklow, Cork, Drogheda, and Limerick, shall be henceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls; and We do hereby further, by and with the advice aforesaid, order that all Records, defined as aforesaid, which have been deposited in the said offices within the last twenty years, or which shall hereafter be deposited therein, shall, so soon as same shall have been deposited for over twenty years, be from thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls.

The Order in Council, dated the 4th day of May, 1891, made under the provisions of the above Act, is hereby revoked.

To the Right Honorable
The Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX III.

Pursuant to the Public Records (Ireland) Act, Sec. 14, I hereby request that the Records of the Exchequer Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, of over ten years from the making thereof, that is to the end of the year 1880, may be removed to the Public Record Office of Ireland. To the Right Honorable
The Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX IV.

I, the Right Honorable R. R. Warren, Judge of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, being of opinion that it would be advisable and for the convenience of the public in the several District Registries, that the books containing the copies of the wills proved since the 11th January, 1858, be not removed from the several District Registries yearly to the Public Record Office, do hereby certify that it will be conducive to the ends of justice and to the due performance of the public business of the Probate Court in the District Registries that the books containing the copies of wills proved since the 11th January, 1858, should not be transferred to the Public Record Office at the end of twenty years from the making thereof.

Dated this 15th day of June, 1891.

ROBT. R. WARREN.

Whereas the District Registrars of the Court of Probate in Ireland, in pursuance of the 20 and 21 Vic., c. 79, s. 55, send copies of the wills proved with them to the Principal Registry in Dublin, which are transferred amongst the yearly increment, to the Public Record Office. And whereas the said Registrars also keep in their respective District Registries books containing copies of the proved wills, called Will Books. And whereas the Right Honorable R. R. Warren, Judge of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, being of opinion that it would be advisable and for the convenience of the public in the several District Registries, that the said books, containing the copies of the proved wills, be not removed from the said District Registries yearly to the Public Record Office, hath certified that it will be conducive to the ends of justice, and to the due performance of the public business of his Court in the said District Registries, that the said Will Books of the said several Registries should not be transferred to the Public Record Office at the end of twenty years from the making thereof. And whereas I, the Right Honorable Andrew Marshall Porter, Master of the Rolls in Ireland, am satisfied that the retention of the said Will Books in the custody of the District Registrars will not be attended with any hiatus in the sequence of Probate Records in the Public Record Office, as there will still be of record therein the original Wills, and the copies thereof, made under the 55th Section of the Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland) Act, 1857. And whereas it appears to me that it would be to the public advantage that the Records aforesaid should not be removed from time to time to the Public Record Office from the several District Registries. Now I, the Right Honorable Andrew Marshall Porter, Master of the Rolls in Ireland, do order and direct that the said Will Books be not removed from the several District Registries as they accrue until further order. And I hereby authorize J. J. Digges La Touche, esquire, LL.D., the Deputy-Keeper of the Public Records, not to remove the said books until further order; and I now hereby order him to return to the custody of the said several District Registrars the Will Books that have been made under the Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland) Act, 1857, since the 11th January, 1858, and been transferred to the Public Record Office, as set out in the Schedule hereto.

Dated at the Rolls Chamber, Dublin, this 18th day of June, 1891.

Article II. Whether the public voice concerning same always ran as now among the responsible citizens of Clonmell. The said Commissary having complied therewith, Thomas White, burgess of the said town, deposed that Article I. was true and that he knew so, because he saw the said Thomas Levet nursed in the house of his said father, and then and since he was named and reputed the son of the said William and was never ascribed to any other, and that Article II. was also true, because he never saw or heard to the contrary ; Redmond Roch and Walter Poer, 60 years of age, Theobald White and Wm. DUBLIN CASTLE, 5th August, 1893.

SIR,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th instant, forwarding, for submission to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Twenty-fifth Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

D. HARREL.

The Deputy Keeper,
Public Record Office,
Four Courts,

THE TWENTY-FIFTH REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE BARON
HOUGHTON,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. On the 5th August, 1892, Sir Bernard Burke, the Keeper of the State Papers, resigned that office, and on the 5th October, 1892, your Excellency was pleased to appoint me, under Section 10 of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, to fill the vacant post without any additional salary.

2. By the retirement of Sir Bernard Burke, which was followed, to the regret of all who knew him, by his death in the succeeding December, the State Paper Office was deprived of one who had directed and largely shared in its work for close on forty years. Under his direction the former contents of the Tower, the Bermingham Tower collection of early Plea and Pipe Rolls, the Parliamentary collection, and the books and papers of the late Record Commission were restored to order and removed to the Public Record Office. Under him the State Paper collection has been methodised, indexed, and made accessible. There are many memorials by which the name of Sir J. Bernard Burke will ever be honorably preserved, but, as Keeper of the State Papers, his fittest memorial is formed by the 3,000 carton boxes of State Papers, which, following his adoption of the French system for preserving Records, line the shelves of the Record Tower. The twenty-four Annual Reports printed as appendices to the Reports of the Deputy Keeper of the Records relate in detail his work on the Records and papers since the passing of the Public Records Act in 1867.

3. On the 10th September, 1892, Mr. Richard C. Maxwell was appointed to the Junior Clerkship, vacant on the retirement of Mr. J. M. Clarke.

4. In pursuance of the Order of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in Council of the 22nd May, 1891, the Records of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace of the counties of Armagh, Cavan, Down, Londonderry, Mayo, Meath, Queen's county, and Wicklow have been transferred, assorted, and duly deposited in this Department, and Schedules of them will be found below, vide paragraphs 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50. Those of Sligo have been transferred, but having come up in bundles not answering to the labels placed upon them, and largely "miscellaneous," the assortment of them has not yet been completed. Tipperary and Wexford are in process of transfer, and those of the county and city of Limerick, it is hoped, will be transferred during the coming year.

From the Peace Office, Green-street, an increment to the year 1871 has been transferred, vide paragraph 40.

5. The Right Reverend Dr. Gregg, Bishop of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross, has deposited here one of the oldest registry books in Ireland, being the Registry and Will Book of the diocese of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross for the years 1571 to 1612, to be placed amongst the other Records of the late Diocesan Registry of Cork. This volume contains copies of Wills, grants of Probate and Administration, Sentences, Collations, Presentations, Appearances, and Citations between the years 1571 and 1612, and was described in the Report of Mr. Henry Heard, Registrar of Cork and Ross, to the late Record Commission of Ireland in 1812, as then in his custody.

State Paper Office.

6. No papers have been received from the Chief Secretary's Office during the year, nor have any Records been transferred to the Public Record Office. At the request of the Under-Secretary a considerable mass of books and papers was received early in the year by Sir Bernard Burke from the offices of the Government Prisons Board, viz. :—

7. The searches required by the Chief Secretary's Department have been fewer than in recent years, numbering 194.

8. The Draft Calendar to the Civil Petitions has been continued by Mr. Maginn to the letter W, and was nearly completed at the close of the year.

9. The Calendar of British Departmental Correspondence has been carried down to No. 5,096, 13 January, 1757, by Mr. Jerred.

10. On my appointment as Keeper of the State Papers, Mr. James Mills, Senior Clerk of the Public Record Office, was placed in charge of the Records in the Tower. In addition to the oversight of the searches and other work of the office, Mr. Mills has commenced the arrangement of a large collection of papers referred to in Sir Bernard Burke's Fifteenth Report, p. 182, as then taken out of "74 huge wooden boxes." These had been very imperfectly catalogued and placed, as they came from the boxes, on the shelves of the lowest story of the Tower in a room commonly known as "the Storeroom," and in the recesses of rooms Nos. 1 and 6, to await further arrangements. They consist largely of the letters and papers of the former Military and Yeomanry Departments of the Chief Secretary's Office.

11. Up to the end of 1892 the following classes of papers have been cleaned, arranged, tied in brown paper wrappers, labelled, and catalogued.

51. There have been received here from the Quit Rent Office 82 Deeds affecting the rights of the Crown, of which 76 are conveyances of Crown and Quit Rents.

Intern Fittings.

52. Six bays, hitherto without fittings, have been fitted with uprights and galvanised iron shelving, in a similar style to the fittings originally erected.

53. The attention of the Board of Works has been directed to the insecure condition of the State Papers in the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, from the proximity of wooden fittings and open fire-places, and measures are being considered, with a view to a remedy.

54. The wooden fittings in the Strong Room have been removed and replaced with iron. A Milner's patent fire-resisting door has been erected, the open fire-place taken away, and hot water fittings, in connection with the heating of the Record Treasury, supplied.

55. Locked glass cases have been provided for the display to the public of interesting documents, so as to obviate, as far as possible, any risks that may arise from the handling of the Records.

56. The usual diagram, showing the changes and increments of Records in the Record Treasury during the year, is annexed.

Sorting and Arrangement of Records.

57. Four sacks and eight bundles removed from the Diocesan Registry of Cork, labelled "Cork Court Papers," have had their contents classified, arranged under their dates, and made up into seventy-three covered parcels; and one sack of Raphoe Diocesan Papers has been similarly treated, forming eleven parcels.

58. The contents of a sack, containing Miscellaneous Papers of the Prerogative Court, comprising some seven hundred separate Cause Papers, and fourteen parcels of other Records, have been arranged, and the Cause Papers interpolated amongst the series of Prerogative Cause Papers.

59. Eight bundles from the late Rolls Office of mixed Chancery and Equity Exchequer Pleadings have been interpolated into their respective series.

60. The contents of two thousand two hundred and nine parcels of Records have been stamped, in addition to the Records stamped from day to day, when brought from the Record Treasury into the Public Search Room for inspection.

61. The Records transferred from the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties of Armagh, Cavan, Down,

VAULTS.

(Work since last Report shown in Red.)

NORTH.

Londonderry county and city, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, and Wicklow, and the increment from the Clerk of the Peace of the city of Dublin, have been sorted and arranged into ten thousand two hundred and fifty-nine bundles, covered with brown paper, and deposited in their final destinations.

62. The Wills and Administrations removed from the Principal and District Registries of the Court of Probate have been arranged in dictionary order, and the former put into envelopes in a continuous series for the year.

63. In the Bookbinding and Repairing Department there has been but little done in the way of repairing from the pressure of other work ; but 53 volumes of Parish Registers, 50 of Inventions Patents, and 254 Miscellaneous Volumes have been bound.

Indexing and Calendaring.

64. The Draft Index to the Marriage Licence Bonds of the Diocese of Elphin has been arranged in dictionary order and engrossed to the end of letter C. The draft of those for the Diocese of Cloyne continued to letter M, Cork and Ross to 1778, Armagh completed, Clogher from 1750 completed, and Waterford and Lismore finished from 1725. Draft Indices have been made to the Marriage Licence Bonds for Kildare, Meath, and Raphoe, and those made for Cashel and Emly, Killala and Achonry, and Killaloe compared. 24th Rep.,
56 par.

65. Draft Indices have been made to the Marriage Licences in two Leighlin Grant Books, 1813-1823 and 1833-1856, to a Meath Grant Book, 1763-1822, and to a Newry Grant Book, 1804-1848, and the like have been made and compared to the Marriage Licences in the Kildare Grant Book, 1802-5, and in the Killala Grant Book, 1814-1820, and to the Killala Grant Book of 1800-1857.

66. The arrangement in dictionary order of the draft slips for the Index to the Grant Books of the Consistorial Court of Dublin has been completed, and a fair copy made for the printer of the entries prior to 1800 as far as the letter C. It is proposed to bring this Index out in print, as a separate appendix, in the course of next year. 24th Rep.,
61 par.

67. An Index to the Cork, Cloyne, and Ross Registry and Will book, 1591-1612, presented by the Bishop of Cork, has been made and engrossed in the book.

68. The Prerogative Will and Grant Index, 1844-46, has been engrossed and compared.

69. The Ecclesiastical Collections removed at various times from the Diocesan Registries have been methodised and entered in a Detailed Index, which has proceeded as far as page 207.

70. A Draft Index to the Calendars of Deeds of Christ Church Cathedral has been formed, but owing to the pressure of other matters it will not be possible to complete it for printing until next year.

71. The Consolidated Detailed Index to the Records of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace has been advanced to page 318, that of the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, to page 360, the Chancery collection, volume 2, to page 476, the Testamentary Collection to page 92, and the volume of Miscellaneous Collections to page 324.

72. An Index has been made to the 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, and 25th Reports of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, and printed as Appendix III.

Appendix III.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Acts,

38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, and 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58.

73. The Reports of Parochial Officers having the custody of their Parish Registers, under Retention Orders granted by the Master of the Rolls (now 536 in number), were, for the year 1892, furnished in full.

74. Damp was reported in only two parishes, and the same measures which were successful in other cases were recommended to be adopted.

75. As it was apparent from the Reports that many Parochial Officers were unaware of their duties in regard to the Records in their custody under Retention Orders, instructions were drawn up and approved of by His Honor the Master of the Rolls (see Appendix II.), and printed copies sent to every Parochial Officer, endorsed with a transcript of the Order and Schedule of the Records of the Parish to which it was sent.

Appendix II.

76. A Vestry Book of the Parish of Owenduff, 1788-1808, which was reported missing in 1891 (see 23rd Report, page 17), has been recovered. The Register for 1808-1845 has not, however, as yet come into the hands of the present Incumbent. A Vestry Book of Killybegs, which was returned in the Inventory furnished to this Department in 1876, and was stated to contain entries of Baptism for 1787-1796, could not be found by the Incumbent when the Records became attachable, and a memorandum to that effect was appended to the Schedule of the Order made in this case.
